DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's response to the Restriction requirement filed November 16, 2006 noted that the Examiner did not include claim 12 in the Restriction requirement. Upon further consideration of the instant application, the Examiner has deemed that a new restriction requirement is necessary to reflect the amended claims filed on July 22, 2004.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 1-7, drawn to an in vitro method of evaluating the dynamic biological state of a patient.

Group 2, claim(s) 8-12, drawn to a software product for measuring an index.

The inventions listed as Groups 1 and 2 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group 1 and Group 2 share the same feature of measuring indices J1-J157. However, this feature does not represent a contribution of the prior art because measuring these indices is well known in the art. For example, the index J1 is the ratio of red blood cells to leukocytes which is taught in Adams (US #3,883,247) (column 2). Thus, the measuring of these indices is not a special technical feature. Since Group 1 and Group 2 do not share the same technical feature, Group 1 and Group 2 do not relate to a single inventive concept.

Art Unit: 1631

Species Requirement

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species A, claim 1-6, drawn to indices (please elect one index J1-J157).

Species B, claim 8, drawn to indices (please elect one index J1-J157).

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 1631

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species A, claim 1-6, drawn to indices (please elect one index J1-J157).

Species B, claim 8, drawn to indices (please elect one index J1-J157).

The following claim(s) are generic: 7, 9-12.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The elements within each species claim a distinct and separate method. In Species A and B, each index has its own special technical feature that would require its own set of measurements. The methods do not share a special technical feature because each method contains specific and unique method steps which are not shared by each of the other methods and each method has a unique and distinct outcome. Thus, the indices in Species A and B do not share a corresponding special technical feature.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Art Unit: 1631

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
